'..Dark red, beautifully balanced, fruity, leafy, minty style. Lovely lifted fruit aromas followed by a full-bodied palate that's soft and velvety in the mouth and has great supporting tannin structure.

Plenty ahead of it..'

'..Deep garnet-purple colored, 2008 Basilisk Cabernet Merlot has intense aromas of warm cassis and mint with a spot of dark chocolate and cloves. The full bodied palate is well balanced with crisp acid and a medium level of fine tannins supporting a good concentration of fruit. Drink this one now to 2015+. McPherson's Basilisk wines are solidly made and offer a good value taste of Central Victoria fruit..'

'..Herbal / menthol elements on the nose and a very balanced palate with nice fruit vibrancy, good acidity and warming alcohol..'
