Winemaker: Jo Nash

Every Spring, Andrew McPherson's young granddaughter Aimee plants a garden of flowers at the front of her family home. The gorgeous fragrances and colours of Aimee's flowers in full bloom never fail to lift our spirits and bring a smile to our faces.

JO'S WINEMAKING / VITICULTURE

Fruit for the McPherson Moscato was harvested from a select vineyard within the Swan Hill region of Victoria during late February 2015. The fruit was crushed, pressed and cold settled before being inoculated. The juice was also fined prior to inoculation to ensure that the final wine is smooth and easy to drink. The fermentation was conducted at very cool temperatures ranging between 8-10C, with the fermentation period taking 10 days. To make certain sugar / alcohol balance was perfect, the ferment was measured daily for sugar and alcohol levels. The final wine was then fined, cold stabilised and filtered within a week to ensure the retention of the spritz and to keep the wine as fresh and fruity as possible.

JO'S HARVEST NOTES

As a Winemaker, the challenges that each harvest brings never cease to amaze me. Just when you think you have an understanding of what's going on, another season hits bringing with it yet another challenge and a completely new scenario. In 2015 we had little rain and warm temperatures, leading to fast ripening, early in the season. Once temperatures cooled, things slowed down and we saw an increase in flavours and quality.

JO'S WINE DESCRIPTION

Our 2015 Moscato is named in honour of Aimee's Garden. With lifted floral aromas and flavours of strawberries, rose petals and a hint of musk, this wine has a fine spritz, an uplifting finish and is best enjoyed chilled.

JO'S FOOD RECOMMENDATIONS

Easy drinking with low alcohol and a slight spritz on the palate, the 2015 Moscato is perfect for a Sunday afternoon tippie. Partners beautifully with a spicy Asian curry or Thai salad.
